Dan's $.02 for November is actually a report of the October Campout to Devils Lake and the Extended Trip to Michigan by reporters in the field: Bonnie Gardner shared that there was a little devil creating a little rain on the Clackamas Campers Oct. 25-27 in Devils Lake, Lincoln City. The fearless campers had pizza on Friday and Elvis and John Wayne milkshakes at the "60's Café" on Saturday (you will have to ask Bonnie what in the world was in the shakes besides ice cream). The Gardners, DeGraws, Grahams, Bill Shearer and Cynthia Bauer were in attendance.

The McLaughlins, Borgens, Grahams, Schuckmans, and Jordans headed from Leavenworth, WA Sept.15, on a 2,000 - mile adventure to St. Ignace, Michigan to visit Mackinac Island.

Carol McLaughlin sends the following report: our highlights included exploring Bemidji, Minn. the first city on the Mississippi, (and the first sighting of Starbucks since Coeur d'Alene), North Shore of Lake Superior including a 4th generation fudge shop, Duluth Traders Co., and Split Rock State Park. The Split Rock Lighthouse is built on rock that's composition is only found on the Moon (possibly from a meteor strike that caused the rock to fall to the earth and land on the North Shore of Lake Superior). We took horse drawn carriages around Mackinac Island and the drivers were college students. We tasted delicious varieties of fudge, food and shopped.

Two rigs departed for Wisconsin, Iowa Oktoberfest in Amana Colonies, Hannibal, MO and Sam Clements' (Mark Twain) childhood home and Museum, ending in Branson. Two rigs headed to Niagara Falls and the Jordan's headed on their way to Indiana. One of my favorite places was Cass Lake Minn, (see pic above), the headquarters of the Chippewa National Forest.
